Testimony: Housing Progress! State of the County

While homelessness remains a crisis, spirits were high at the State of the County Address. Commissioner Pat Farr said the programs they initiated this year are “some of the best stuff we’ve ever done.” The county successfully:

- prevented 786 households from losing their homes, exceeding its goal of 741 homes.
- rehoused 196 previously homeless households,
- created 274 emergency shelter beds, exceeding its goal of 230 beds.

Farr also celebrated how the County has embraced a new vision for working together to maximize our effectiveness as govts, agencies & private citizens” (a specific way we pray)!

Despite these achievements, Lane County’s Point in Time Count shows an overall increase in homelessness in 2023. This compels us to continue to pray and seek God’s solutions for both individuals and every sector that addresses this crisis.
